1. About These Terms

Welcome to Current Tech Automotive (“we”, “us” or “our”). These Terms and Conditions govern your access to and use of our website, www.currenttech.com.au, and your purchase of products through our online store.

By accessing our website or placing an order, you agree to these Terms and Conditions. If you do not agree, please do not use our website or place an order.

You must be legally capable of entering into a binding contract to place an order with us. If you are under 18, you may only place an order with the involvement and consent of a parent or legal guardian where required by law.

These Terms should be read together with our Privacy Policy, Shipping Policy and Returns Policy, where available.

Nothing in these Terms excludes, restricts or modifies any rights or remedies that cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted or modified under Australian law, including the Australian Consumer Law.

2. Products and Product Information

We sell electronics, gadgets, accessories and related products through our online store.

We make reasonable efforts to ensure that product descriptions, images, specifications, prices and availability are accurate and up to date. However:

Product images are illustrative and may vary slightly from the actual product in colour, appearance or packaging.

Product specifications, compatibility, dimensions and included accessories will be described on the relevant product page where applicable.

You should check product specifications and compatibility requirements before purchasing.

Software, firmware, applications and connected-device features may be subject to third-party requirements or updates.

Product availability may change without notice.

We will not intentionally misrepresent a product. If a product description contains a material error, we may contact you to discuss the available options before fulfilling the order.

Nothing in this section limits your rights if a product does not match its description or otherwise fails to meet an applicable consumer guarantee.

3. Pricing and Payment

All prices are displayed in Australian Dollar's and includes applicable GST.

Any applicable delivery charges, taxes or other mandatory fees will be disclosed before you complete your purchase.

We accept the payment methods displayed at checkout, which may include [credit cards, debit cards, PayPal, digital wallets or other supported payment methods].

By submitting an order, you confirm that:

The information you provide is accurate and complete.

You are authorised to use the selected payment method.

You agree to pay the total amount displayed at checkout.

Payments may be processed by third-party payment providers under their own terms and privacy policies. We do not intend to store full payment card details unless expressly disclosed and handled in accordance with applicable requirements.

If a pricing or listing error is identified, we will contact you where appropriate before taking further action. If your order has already been paid for and cannot reasonably be fulfilled at the agreed price, we will arrange an appropriate resolution, including a refund where applicable.

4. Orders and Acceptance

When you submit an order, you are making an offer to purchase the selected products.

An automated order confirmation acknowledges that we have received your order. It does not necessarily mean that your order has been accepted.

We may decline or cancel an order where reasonably necessary, including where:

A product is unavailable or discontinued.

There is a material pricing or listing error.

Payment cannot be authorised.

We reasonably suspect fraud, unauthorised activity or misuse of our store.

We are unable to deliver to the supplied address.

If we cancel an order after payment has been taken, we will refund the amount paid for the cancelled products and any associated delivery charges where applicable.

We will not use this clause to avoid obligations that have already arisen under applicable law.

5. Shipping and Delivery

We deliver within Australia only.

Available delivery methods, charges and estimated delivery times will be displayed at checkout or communicated before your order is finalised.

Unless otherwise stated:

Orders are processed within 2 business days.

Delivery estimates are indicative and may be affected by courier delays, weather, public holidays or other circumstances outside our reasonable control.

You are responsible for providing a complete and accurate delivery address.

Additional charges for redelivery or address changes will be disclosed where applicable before being charged.

If your order is delayed, lost, damaged or not delivered, please contact us at [customer service email] with your order number. We will investigate and work with the relevant delivery provider to resolve the issue.

We remain responsible for meeting our obligations under applicable consumer law. Nothing in this section transfers responsibility to you in a way that would unlawfully limit your rights concerning non-delivery, loss or damage.

6. Returns, Refunds and Exchanges

We understand that customers may occasionally wish to return a product. Our approach depends on the reason for the return and the condition of the product.

6.1 Faulty, damaged or incorrectly supplied products.

If a product is faulty, damaged, unsafe, materially different from its description or otherwise fails to meet an applicable consumer guarantee, please contact us at [returns email].

Please provide your order number, a description of the problem and, where reasonably helpful, photographs or videos showing the issue.

We will assess the issue in accordance with the Australian Consumer Law and other applicable requirements.

Depending on the circumstances and whether the failure is major or minor, you may be entitled to a repair, replacement, refund or other remedy. Where the law gives you the right to choose the remedy, we will respect that right.

You are not required to pursue a manufacturer's warranty before contacting us about your consumer rights.

We may request reasonable information to assess a claim, but we will not impose requirements that unlawfully restrict your rights.

6.2 Change-of-mind returns.

We assess change-of-mind return requests on a case-by-case basis. A change of mind includes circumstances where you no longer want the product, ordered the wrong item or selected a product that does not suit your preferences, provided the product is otherwise as described and functioning properly.

Unless we expressly offer a change-of-mind return entitlement, we are generally not required to accept returns solely because a customer has changed their mind.

Where we agree to a change-of-mind return, we will confirm the applicable conditions before the return is completed. These may include:

The product being unused and in resalable condition.

The inclusion of accessories, manuals and other supplied items.

The return being made within the period we approve.

The customer paying return postage where this is disclosed and lawful.

For hygiene, safety or product-integrity reasons, certain products may be unsuitable for change-of-mind returns once opened or used, where lawful. This does not affect any rights relating to faulty, unsafe, misdescribed or otherwise non-compliant products.

6.3 Products that cannot be returned for change of mind.

We may decline a change-of-mind return for products that have been used, damaged after delivery, modified, or supplied with missing components, where permitted by law.

This does not exclude any remedy available under the Australian Consumer Law or another applicable law.

6.4 Return authorisation and procedure

Please contact admin@currenttech.com.au before sending a product back. We will provide return instructions and, where applicable, a return reference number and return address.

Please package the product securely and include your order number or proof of purchase.

Do not send products to a manufacturer or other third party unless we instruct you to do so or the arrangement is otherwise agreed.

We will explain any applicable return-shipping arrangements when we assess your request. Where we are legally responsible for return costs, we will meet that responsibility.

6.5 Refund processing

Approved refunds will generally be issued to the original payment method unless another method is agreed or required by law.

We will process refunds within [insert reasonable processing timeframe] after the applicable refund entitlement has been confirmed and any necessary return or assessment process has been completed.

Your bank or payment provider may require additional time to make the funds available.

We will not deduct restocking fees or other charges where doing so would be unlawful.

6.6 Consumer rights are not limited.

Nothing in this Returns Policy removes, limits or replaces your statutory rights. A store policy, manufacturer's warranty or expiry of a voluntary return period does not override an applicable consumer guarantee.

7. Manufacturer Warranties and Product Support

Some products may include a manufacturer's warranty or a separate commercial warranty. Any applicable warranty details will be provided with the product or made available on request.

Manufacturer warranties are additional to your rights under the Australian Consumer Law and do not replace those rights.

If you experience a product issue, please contact [customer service email]. We will help determine the appropriate next steps.

We do not guarantee that a manufacturer or third-party service provider will continue to offer a particular feature, application, update or support service indefinitely, except where such a guarantee is expressly made or required by law.

8. Electronics, Compatibility and Safe Use

Electronic products must be used in accordance with the relevant instructions, safety warnings and specifications.

You are responsible for checking relevant compatibility requirements, including voltage, connectors, operating systems, wireless standards, software requirements and supported devices, where applicable.

You should:

Use the supplied charger or a suitable compatible power source where required.

Follow the manufacturer's installation, maintenance and safety instructions.

Avoid using damaged cables, batteries, chargers or devices.

Keep products away from water, excessive heat and other conditions prohibited by the manufacturer.

Avoid unauthorised modifications that may create a safety risk.

We are not responsible for damage caused by misuse, unauthorised modification, improper installation or failure to follow instructions, to the extent that the law permits us to exclude responsibility for that damage.

This clause does not exclude responsibility for defective products, inadequate warnings or any other matter for which we remain legally responsible.

9. Promotions, Discounts and Gift Cards

Promotional offers, discount codes and gift cards may be subject to additional terms disclosed when the offer is made.

Unless otherwise stated, promotional offers:

Must be used in accordance with their stated conditions.

Cannot be combined with other offers unless expressly permitted.

May be subject to expiry dates, eligible products or minimum purchase requirements.

We will disclose material restrictions and conditions before you rely on a promotional offer.

Nothing in this section permits us to withdraw a benefit contrary to an existing contractual obligation or applicable law.

10. Website Use and Security

You agree to use our website lawfully and not to:

Engage in fraudulent, deceptive or unlawful activities.

Attempt to gain unauthorised access to our website, systems or customer accounts.

Interfere with website security or normal operation.

Introduce malicious code or harmful material.

Copy, scrape or use website content in a manner that infringes our rights or applicable law.

You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account credentials and for activity carried out through your account, subject to any rights or protections available to you under law.

Please notify us promptly at admin@currenttech.com.au if you suspect unauthorised access to your account.

We may suspend or restrict access where reasonably necessary for security, legal compliance or the prevention of misuse.

11. Intellectual Property

Unless otherwise stated, the content on our website, including text, product descriptions, logos, graphics, photographs, designs and branding, is owned by or licensed to Current Tech Pty Ltd.

You may access and use the website for personal, lawful shopping purposes.

You must not reproduce, distribute, modify, commercially exploit or republish our content without our prior written permission, except where permitted by law.

Third-party product names, trademarks and logos remain the property of their respective owners. Their appearance on our website does not necessarily imply sponsorship, endorsement or affiliation.

12. Third-Party Services and Links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites or use third-party services, including payment processors, delivery providers and product-support services.

We do not control all third-party websites or services and are not responsible for their independent content, policies or availability, except to the extent required by law.

Your use of a third-party service may be subject to that provider's terms and privacy policy.

This section does not remove any responsibility we have for services we supply, representations we make, or obligations imposed by law.

13. Privacy and Personal Information

We collect and handle personal information in connection with orders, payments, delivery, customer support and website operation.

Our handling of personal information is explained in our Privacy Policy, available at www.currenttech.com.au.

Depending on the circumstances, we may need to share relevant information with payment providers, delivery companies, technology providers or other service providers to fulfil your order or operate our business.

We will handle personal information in accordance with applicable privacy laws and our published Privacy Policy.

Please contact admin@currenttech.com.au if you have a question about how your information is handled.

14. Website Availability and Errors

We aim to keep our website available and its information accurate. However, temporary interruptions may occur because of maintenance, technical issues, security incidents or circumstances beyond our reasonable control.

We may update website content, product listings and features from time to time.

We will not rely on this clause to avoid a binding obligation or remedy to which you are entitled under applicable law.

15. Liability and Consumer Guarantees

Nothing in these Terms excludes, restricts or modifies any consumer guarantee, right, remedy or liability that cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted or modified under the Australian Consumer Law or other applicable law.

To the extent permitted by law, we are not responsible for loss caused solely by your misuse of a product, failure to follow applicable safety instructions, unauthorised modifications or other conduct for which we are not legally responsible.

Where the law permits a limitation of liability, that limitation applies only to the extent legally permitted and in the circumstances in which it is lawful to do so.

We do not exclude liability for fraud, wilful misconduct, personal injury, property damage or other matters where exclusion is prohibited by law.

16. Complaints and Dispute Resolution

If you have a complaint, please contact us first so we have a reasonable opportunity to investigate and resolve it.

Customer support details

Email: admin@currenttech.com.au

Postal address: 10/95 Kelvin Rd Maddington W.A. 6110

Please include your order number, a description of the issue and your preferred resolution.

We aim to acknowledge complaints within [insert timeframe] and provide an update or response within 2 business days, where reasonably practicable.

If we cannot resolve the issue, you may be able to contact the relevant state or territory consumer protection agency or seek assistance through another available dispute-resolution process.

Nothing in this clause prevents you from exercising your legal rights or commencing proceedings where permitted by law.

17. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time to reflect changes to our business, products, website or legal obligations.

The updated version will be published on our website with a revised “Last updated” date.

Changes will apply from the date stated in the updated Terms, to the extent permitted by law. Changes will not retrospectively remove rights or obligations that have already accrued.

The Terms applicable to an order will be determined in accordance with the agreement and applicable law.

18. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of Western Australia.

You and we submit to the jurisdiction of the courts and tribunals that are competent to hear disputes under those laws, subject to any mandatory rights or protections that apply.

Nothing in this clause deprives a consumer of any mandatory rights or remedies available under applicable law.

19. Severability

If any provision of these Terms is found to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable, that provision will be read down or severed to the extent necessary, where permitted by law.

The remaining provisions will continue to apply to the extent they remain valid and enforceable.

20. Entire Agreement

These Terms, together with any policies or terms expressly incorporated into them and any order-specific terms agreed with you, govern your use of our website and your purchases from us.

If there is an inconsistency between these Terms and a mandatory legal right, the mandatory legal right prevails.

21. Contact Us
